Fire Apparatus From Six Other Places, Including Kingston, Save Village From Threatened Destruction When Manhattan Hotel and Two Adjoining Buildings Burn—Boy's Escape Thrills Crowd.

Through the combined efforts of fire departments from seven towns and cities, the village of Palenville was saved from total destruction Thursday afternoon. When the blaze was seen to spread rapidly and menacingly from the Manhattan Hotel, alarms were sent out to neighboring places asking aid. Apparatus arrived in short time from Kingston, Saugerties, Catskill, Leeds, Tannersville and Lexington. The efforts of the fire fighters proved very useful as the conflagration was conveyed to the hotel and two adjoining buildings. The Manhattan Hotel was completely destroyed and an adjoining drug store and tea room were ruined. The property damage was estimated at $75,000. None of the occupants of the buildings were injured and no casualties were reported.

Fire Starts In Hotel.

The fire started in the Manhattan Hotel, which is a frame building owned by Frank Brooks, and in an hour and a half it was leveled. The adjoining drug store and tea room, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Sutton, caught fire from the flying embers and soon were a mass of flames. The fire was said to have started in an unoccupied part of the hotel and the cause is not known.

Through the efforts of the firemen the blaze was kept from spreading further damage throughout the small village and also under their direction many furnishings and wares were saved from destruction.

Occupants Not Injured.

It was said that there were nine occupants in the hotel when the fire started and they reached safety without any confusion. Some of the personal effects of the occupants were saved. When it was seen that it would be impossible to save the fire from spreading to the drug store and tea room, the removal of the furnishings and stock from these buildings. There was sufficient time before the stores were ablaze to save some of the stock. There was great damage to what remained in the stores by smoke and water.

Boy Re-Enters Building.

It was said by spectators that Robert Naudin, twelve years of age, re-entered the hotel when it was ablaze to save some of the personal belongings of one of the guests. After throwing articles from the window sill he let himself down, clinging to the window ledge he let go and landed on the porch uninjured. From there he was taken to safety down a ladder by firemen. The boy's escape thrilled the crowd that soon gathered. Another person was said to have been taken from the roof of the porch by firemen.

Hotel Recently Renovated.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks had recently spent $7,000 in renovating and painting the hotel building, which was very attractive. The hotel was situated on the main highway and was a big asset to the village. The proprietors feel the loss particularly at this time because business was just beginning to come in after many months of work and waiting. They expected 21 guests over the weekend. The hotel was bought by the Brooks family eight years ago and they sold it six years ago. Two years ago they again purchased it through foreclosure proceedings.

Serve Sandwiches.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutton, undaunted by their great loss had taken ice cream and sandwiches from the drug store and they served these to the firemen. The drug store and tea room were recently opened for the summer trade. New stock to the amount of $3,000 was recently purchased.

Fire Starts at 2:30.

The blaze in the hotel was first discovered at about 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon and by four o'clock there remained but blazing embers on the foundation. The fire apparatus from the neighboring places brought many followers to the scene and by night hundreds from all sections journeyed to see the ruins.

Body of Belgian Financier Found Question of Succession Up to Mexican Congress

Recovery of Captain Lowenstein's Body in English Channel Discovers Suspicion of Death Hoax But Mystery of Death Remains Unsolved.

Calais, France, July 20 (AP).—Finding of the body of Captain Alfred Lowenstein, Belgian financier, in the English Channel today revived the mystery which surrounds his death.

It was believed that the French government would begin an official inquiry to establish whether death was accidental or suicide and whether any of his fellow passengers on the fatal plane trip share responsibility for his death. Discovery of the body definitely set at rest rumors that the mystery man of European finance had perpetrated a gigantic hoax by disappearing alive.

The authorities still have to determine whether he fell accidentally from his plane in crossing the channel or deliberately wrenched open the exit door and plunged to his death.

Dr. Bouffroy, who examined the body, found nothing to show the exact cause of death, whether he was drowned or killed by the shock of the fall from a height of 4,000 feet. All he could do was to make absolutely certain of the identity by comparison of the dental work with work that it was known that Captain Lowenstein had done.

The body of the great Belgian financier rested today in a little grey morose beside the prison here awaiting his widow, who is en route from Brussels, where she was prostrated when informed of the discovery. She will make the formal identification, after which the body will be transferred to Brussels.

May Now Wind Up Estate.

Finding of the body will permit immediately the preliminary work of winding up the vast estate. Had the body remained unrecovered legal experts feared that it would be years before this work could be completed and that his great holdings would be tied up indefinitely. A Belgian court had already refused to issue a death certificate.

The body was battered and decomposed when found by a fishing smack floating face downward ten miles off Cape Gris Nez. The sea had stripped it of clothing except part of the underwear and shoes. On a watch on the wrist was engraved: "Captain Lowenstein, 35 Rue La Science, Brussels."

There was a deep wound in the abdomen and three gashes on the left breast and the left shoulder. It was thought probable that these had been made by the propeller blades of channel steamers.

Lowenstein's body was placed in a casket which had been sent overnight from Brussels and a funeral car will take the body home as soon as the authorities here complete the necessary formalities.

Madame Lowenstein was persuaded not to come to Calais but sent her brother and brother-in-law to take charge of the body.

Republican State Committee Meets

New York, July 20 (AP).—The Republican State Committee meets here at 2:45 today to name the place and date for the party convention. It is expected Syracuse will be selected and that the date will be September 27-29.

While this is the only business to be transacted, there will be informal discussion of candidates and policies. While no one has formally announced his candidacy for the gubernatorial nomination, four names are prominently mentioned: Attorney General Albert Ottinger and United States Attorney Charles H. Tuttle, both of New York; Speaker Joseph A. McGinniss of Chautauque county and Senator Caleb H. Baumes of Orange county, author of the stringent Baumes criminal law.

Among those mentioned for the United States senatorial nomination are E. H. Butler, Buffalo publisher, and H. Edmund Nachod of Jefferson county, former speaker of the assembly.

Two names are prominently mentioned for associate judge of the court of appeals. They are Supreme Court Justice Irving C. Hubbs of Pulaski and Supreme Court Justice Rowland L. Davis of Cortland.

PRESIDENT HEARS PLEA FOR ST. LAWRENCE WATERWAY

Superior, Wis., July 20 (AP).—An engagement to hear a strong plea for the St. Lawrence waterway to the ocean was President Coolidge's books today. Harry L. Robinson had an appointment to present the chief executive with a communication of the city council of Washburn stressing the great advantages which would derive to the whole great lakes' region if such a project materialized.

Ambulance Calls.

William Joy, of 125 Greenhill avenue was conveyed to the Benedictine Hospital and Frederick Goodyear was taken from the City of Kingston Hospital to his home on Fairview avenue in the city ambulance on Thursday.

Legislative Body Called in Special Session on July 30 to Determine Whether President Calles May Remain in Office When Term Expires—Nine Day Period of Mourning.

Mexico City, July 20 (AP).—A congress, made up mainly of supporters of President-elect Alvaro Obregon, will meet in special session on July 30, presumably to settle the question of presidential succession raised by his assassination. It is generally expected that a way will be found to continue President Calles in office. Meanwhile a nine-day period of mourning is to be observed throughout Mexico for the slain warrior president-elect.

General Antonio Rios Xertuche, installed as chief of police to handle the investigation into the killing, announced "that responsibility for the crime lies with the Catholic clergy." Police were continuing their investigation in an effort to find those "intellectually responsible."

Twenty Catholic nuns from the town of Villa Guadalupe, where the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patron Saint of Mexico, is situated, were arrested and their convent closed. Police charged they were operating secretly in violation of the religious laws. They were held at police headquarters where the slayer, Jose Del Leon Toral, is incarcerated in a dungeon.

Find Placard on Tomb.

A placard bearing the words "you are avenged" was found on the tomb of Miguel Pro Juarez, executed last November in connection with the attempt to assassinate General Obregon with bombs. Police said a picture of the dead priest was found on the assassin.

The newspaper El Universal Graphic said police were investigating reports, the source of which was not revealed, that some of the former leaders of the League for the Defense of Religious Liberty recently were involved in a plot against Obregon.

A number of relatives of the four men, including Pro Juarez, who were executed for the bombing attempt, were summoned to police headquarters for interrogation.

Calles Under Heavy Guard.

President Calles today was under a heavy guard. The precautions were taken at the behest of friends, although Calles has rejected any idea that his personal safety was in danger. Some of his friends think that the President has rashly exposed himself to the danger of assassination, especially by marching in the Obregon funeral procession. He has almost gone without sleep since the crime, participating in the investigation as well as taking part in the funeral and its preliminaries.

Special police guards were placed around the residences of all prominent supporters of General Obregon. Assassin Exhibited to Newspapersmen.

Police Chief Xertuche exhibited to Leon Toral to a group of Mexican and foreign newspaper men in police headquarters to put an end to reports that he had already been executed secretly or had been mutilated by torture. The slayer was paraded up and down the chief's office. He sat down in a chair and arose again as instructed. Then the chief asked: "Can you talk?"

The prisoner replied in Spanish, "I think so."

He was then taken out without the reporters being allowed to ask him any questions.

The slayer's left eye was black and swollen, there were a few bruises on his face but all traces of blood had been washed away. It was intimated that the bruises had been sustained in the scuffle which followed the assassination.

The youth's face had an expression of extreme weariness and betrayed lack of sleep. He was collarless but clean shaven. He wore a wrinkled light brown suit. His eyes were evasive and his expression was stolid and sullen.

Continue Calles in Office.

Indications were that supporters of Obregon would attempt to continue President Calles at the head of the state, if it could be done with any shadow of legal sanction. The plan was said to be to propose Calles for the presidency protem, not as president, thus eliminating violation of the constitution, which forbids the chief executive from succeeding himself.

HILL TAKES CHARGE OF HOOVER WORK IN STATE

New York, July 20 (AP).—William H. Hill of Binghamton, chairman of the New York State Hoover Campaign Committee, has arrived here and taken charge of committee headquarters.

Hill is most optimistic of Republican success in the November election and predicts that Hoover will carry the state. He declared there would be a heavy increase in the Republican up-state vote.

TWO MEMBERS OF COAST GUARD REPORTED MISSING

Delaware Breakwater, Del., July 20 (AP).—Two members of the crew of the coast guard patrol boat No. 112 were reported missing following a collision off the Delaware capes today with the Steamer Calhoun. The patrol boat sank.

Death of Young Author a Mystery

Virginia Drew, Student of Reincarnation, Found Drowned in Hudson River—Friend Tells of Alleged Suicide Pact.

New York, July 20 (AP).—The death of Virginia Drew, 24-year-old student of literature and reincarnation whose body was found floating in the Hudson river, furnished a mystery today.

The parents were inclined to place little credence in a report to police by Caroline Norrington, who described herself as a friend of Miss Drew, that the student had told her of a suicide pact with a novelist, but they asked a full investigation.

It was determined that Miss Drew had called on Maxwell Bodenheim, author of "Requiem for a Fool," on Sunday night. She was not seen again until her body was found yesterday. The girl's father, a New York Central railroad agent, said he did not believe his daughter had had a suicide pact with Bodenheim, but he felt that the novelist might have "something to explain, which would help clear up the mystery."

Bodenheim, police found, checked out from the hotel where the girl visited him on Tuesday and his publishers said they had not been able to reach him since. Both Miss Novotny and Miss Drew's parents said that Bodenheim had been helping the girl with her writing and that she had seemed dejected over criticisms he had made of her work.

Said Novelist Agreed to Help.

Miss Novotny told police that she and Miss Drew attended art school together seven years ago and were close friends but later became estranged. Recently, however, she said Miss Drew telephoned her that she had had "a stroke of fortune" in that a novelist had agreed to help her with her writing. Miss Novotny said the novelist was Bodenheim.

A few days later, she said, Miss Drew told her the criticism of her writing by Bodenheim had "cut her to the heart" and that they had made a suicide pact. Miss Novotny said that she had argued with the girl and finally Miss Drew had agreed to "be off" from the arrangement.

The day after Miss Drew disappeared her father and brother called at Bodenheim's hotel but he was out. When he returned on Tuesday, he was told of the visit, hotel officials said, he asked about the appearance of his callers and then checked out, saying he was going to the Grand Central Terminal.

Left Home With Manuscripts.

Miss Drew's mother said that on Sunday night the girl left the house with several rejected manuscripts, saying that Bodenheim was going to criticize them for her. The hotel clerk said the girl called on the novelist and left shortly after midnight.

Early this year Bodenheim received wide newspaper notice when he and his publishers were tried for publishing an alleged indecent book. The entire book, Bodenheim's "Requiem for a Fool," was read to the jury and all defendants were acquitted.

Throng Town for Obregon Funeral

Nogales, Ariz., July 20 (AP).—The agricultural village of Navajon in southern Sonora today temporarily became the heart of Mexico, and the trails, roads and railway leading into it became the nation's veins along which followed Mexicans of all stations in life.

Peons afoot, caballeros, business men and government officials made their mecca the little town on the bank of the Mayo river where General Alvaro Obregon, assassinated President-elect of Mexico will be buried.

Friends and followers of Obregon throughout northern Mexico and great numbers of workers who live on his huge ranch holdings streamed into Navajon long before the scheduled hour of arrival of the funeral train from Mexico City.

A special train from the north carried friends, relatives and citizens three hundred miles from Nogales, Sonora.

On the outskirts of the Mexican village the Mayo and Yaqui Indians have come for the funeral, have pitched their tents while in the town the meager hotel accommodations already have been taken and private homes have been opened to those who have journeyed there.

$1,000,000 IN ALLEGED PRE-WAR RYE WHISKEY SEIZED

New York, July 20 (AP).—A cargo of alleged pre-war rye whiskey, estimated to be worth $1,000,000, was seized today by customs agents on the Red Cross liner Nerissa. The contraband was found in kegs labelled "Pickled Herring" which had been brought in large barrels from Halifax, N. S. The Nerissa docked in Brooklyn yesterday.

Twelve Nations Willing to Join

Washington Government Receives Favorable Reply From Twelve of the Fourteen Nations to Which Anti-War Treaty Proposal Was Submitted.

Washington, July 20 (AP).—All but two of the fourteen nations to which Secretary Kellogg submitted his treaty for the renunciation of war have formally apprised the Washington government of their willingness to join in the contract.

Japan and Czechoslovakia alone remain to be heard from and the state department has learned through diplomatic channels that they may be expected to concur within a few days.

It is a source of particular gratification to Secretary Kellogg that none of the nations have suggested changes in the text of the draft treaty as revised and submitted together with his explanatory note on June 23. He is pleased, too, with the promptness with which the replies have been received.

The number of countries approving the pact was brought to an even dozen by the acceptance of Great Britain and her dominions, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and India, replies from which were made public last night.

British Interpretation of Treaty.

For the London government, Foreign Secretary Sir Austen Chamberlain, set forth the interpretation placed upon the provisions of the treaty.

The note specifically stated the British understanding of the terms of the treaty, taking note of the provision for relieving the signatory nations of all obligations under the pact to any state violating the covenant, and of Secretary Kellogg's understanding that the right of self defense is implicit in every treaty whether specifically alluded to or not.

The only suggestion of a reservation was in a reference to a passage in Sir Austen's note of May 19 which said that the welfare and integrity of certain regions constituted a special and vital interest to the London government.

"I need only repeat," the note of acceptance said, "that His Majesty's government in Great Britain accepts the new treaty upon the understanding that it does not prejudice their freedom of action in this respect."

Expect Japan's Acceptance.

Tokyo, July 20 (AP).—The Japanese cabinet today approved Japan's reply to Secretary Kellogg's proposal of a treaty to outlaw war. The reply is understood to be an acceptance of the project.

The Japanese note was to be transmitted to the American embassy this afternoon and then cabled to Washington.

Death from Bomb On Auto Starter

Bomb Dissolved Domestic Triangle But Wife and Alleged Sutor Arc in Jail, Both Protesting Innocence.

Rockford, Ill., July 20 (AP).—A bomb, an electrical current and an automobile combined to dissolve a domestic triangle through the death of the husband, but found the wife and her alleged sutor in jail today in connection with the slaying.

Vernon Plager, 32, Rockford radio expert, was the victim of a bomb wired in his automobile so as to explode when he stepped on the starter yesterday. He died within 30 minutes.

"Paul Reed did it," he whispered on his death bed.

Reed, 36, a draftsman, surrendered at Oregon, Ill., late last night, maintaining his innocence.

Mrs. Plager, 22, mother of a five-year old daughter, also held by police, supported her husband's accusation against Reed.

Last year, police said, Mrs. Plager and Reed ran away to a southern Illinois city, where they were arrested and returned. In police court they were fined and a reconciliation followed between husband and wife for the sake of their child.

Last Wednesday, the widow told police, Reed again asked her to elope with him. "I can't live without you," she quoted him as saying. "Every time I see you with your husband it makes me furious."

WILL RAISE $3,000,000 FOR HOOVER CAMPAIGN

Washington, July 20 (AP).—J. R. Nutt, treasurer of the Republican National Committee, is making plans for raising at least $3,000,000 to meet the cost of the Hoover presidential campaign.

This figure, he believes, cannot be considerable excessive. In estimating the amount to be spent, he referred to the fact that the Coolidge campaign of four years ago entailed disbursements of that amount, and remarked: "We have a harder fight on our hands this time."

Arriving in the city yesterday, Nutt conferred with Chairman Work of the national committee on the financial aspects and organization of the campaign. Later, the appointment of Jeremiah Milbank, of New York, as eastern treasurer was announced.

The resignation of Charles Gilbert Spross, for 17 years organist of the First Presbyterian Church, Poughkeepsie, has been submitted to the music committee and will take effect on September 1. Mr. Spross gave as his reason the great pressure of work which has been upon him for the past year.

Mr. Spross is a nationally known composer, having written more than 200 songs. Four of his compositions were released on Monday of this week. He has been playing in churches for over 35 years.

Cars Damaged in Crash.

The accident occurred at the time of the accident with Mrs. Barber. In attempting to avoid the crash Mrs. Barber drove the Franklin up over the sidewalk into the stone steps of the Leader building.

PREPARE GREAT HISTORY OF WAR

War Department Has Big Staff Working on Data of World Conflict.

Washington, D. C.—The War department is adding to its staff for the collection of historical information a staff of army officers trained in research and graduated from civilian universities to winnow out the following documents and transmit to the general public an entirely accurate history of America's participation in the World War.

These army historical experts are toiling to turn out the first of 35 monographs that Secretary Dwight F. Davis has authorized and expects to have three published by Christmas. One is in the process of printing.

Lieut. Col. Christian A. Esch, who has been in charge of the historical section of the Army War college, which is whipping the history into shape, soon will be relieved from his present post through reaching the retirement age, and Col. S. C. Vestal will take charge. Assisting and advising in the compilation at the invitation of the army is an advisory board consisting of these eminent college professors—Dr. C. J. H. Hayes, Dr. T. H. Thomas, Dr. H. C. Bell, and Dr. W. E. Stevens.

"Authenticity the Watchword."

Various gaps in World war information are being filled by a solicitation to former service men to send in documents that will throw light on many hidden phases of the great conflict. Detailed information is being requested from men who saw service in the A. E. F. and, as Maj. W. A. Canoe, executive officer of the Army War college's historical section put it, "Authenticity is our watchword."

Information on the World war is not confined to documents and manuscripts alone, however, for the army has thousands and thousands of photographs, and the remarkable part of it is that America's former foes, the Germans, have co-operated in exchanging information, so that the viewpoint to the battle lines from the German standpoint may be obtained.

Ten years after the war is the proper time to write history, Major Canoe explains, for the country is now at the height of intake and the material is fresh and vital enough to secure a good output. The mellowing distance of a decade has enabled the nation to obtain a less prejudiced slant of the events of 1917-18.

The personnel to undertake this task was obtained by selection with great care from the army, many of the historians being prominent writers themselves on their own account. These will be centered in Washington and for some years to come will be engaged in poring over the documents of import in World war affairs and giving to the public a graphic, interesting, connected mosaic of the war, but with accuracy accentuated.

To print the World war records as was done with the Civil war records would entail millions of expense. To obviate this, highly trained technical students are epitomizing the vast masses of historical material to save the time of the public and to turn out a picture faithfully mirroring the eventful years of 1917 and 1918.

The work is being done in flimsy shacks which the historians declare are veritable firetraps and which, if burned, would wipe out irreplaceable historical documents. In them repose one of the greatest pictorial collections in the nation. There are between 250,000 and 300,000 photographs altogether in the section.

Signal Corps Photos Included.

There are 110,000 signal corps photographs taken during the World war and subsequently, 65,000 of them being obtained in the field with the A. E. F. About 6,000 more photographs are being added annually by the army photographers "shooting" current events of service interest. In the collection are 100,000 unofficial photographs taken by commercial concerns during the war, both here and abroad, but of these there are no negatives.

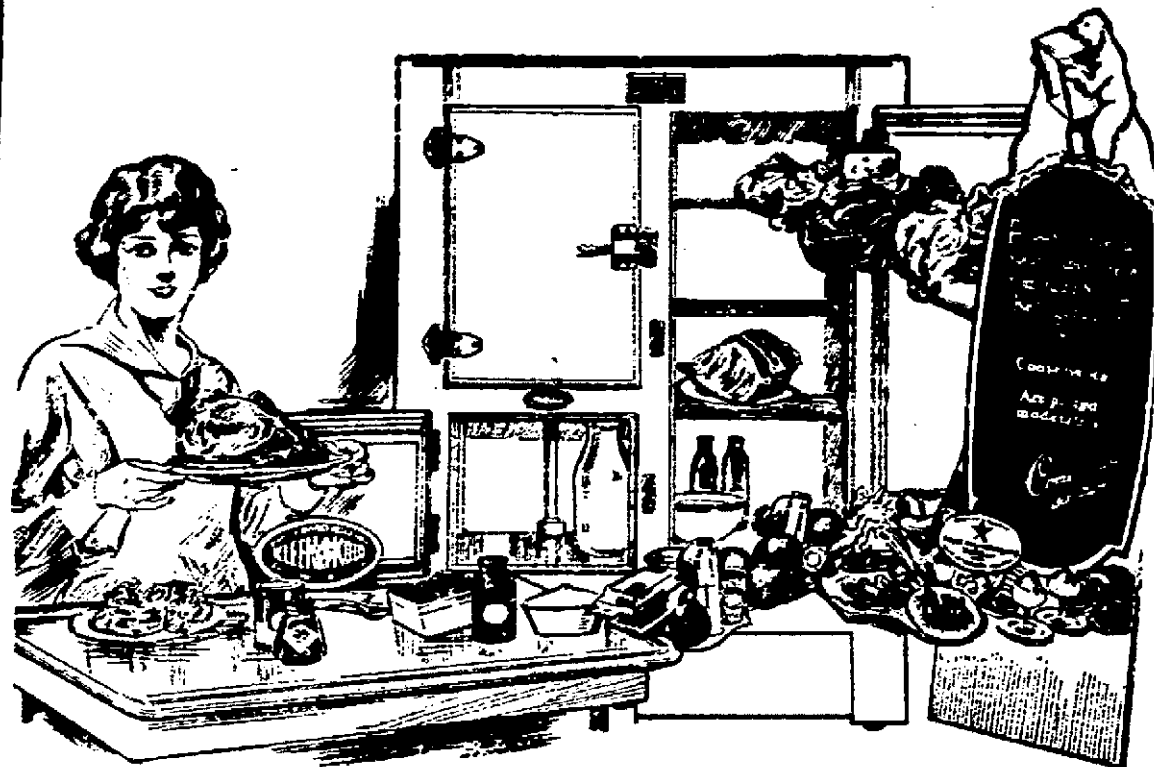

Then there is a notable body collection of 6,000 Civil war photographs and those of eminent personages of that time. The negatives of this first while Washington photographer, who was in the field with the Civil war armies, was purchased for the army by congress for $50,000.

Photographs are being exchanged with Great Britain, France and Germany dealing with World war scenes. Thus a many sided view of that convulsion in human affairs that men term the World war is made possible.

The army officers that will evolve the 35 monographs speak or write two or three languages and have passed through one or two civilian universities, as well as being graduated from West Point. They come to their monumental task fully equipped.

The tentative plan is to have the volumes distributed throughout the service for study and officers having their preparation in charge look for the widest possible use for them. The volumes will contain maps and are intended to serve as master monographs from the standpoint of accuracy from which historians of the future, desiring to expand some particular phase of the war, may be able to glean the information they desire, knowing that it bears the imprimatur of accuracy.

MORAN SCHOOL STUDENTS FILL MANY POSITIONS

Several positions in offices and banks accepted by stenographers, bookkeepers, and clerical assistants who received their training at the Moran Business School, Burgevin Building, corner Fair and Main streets, are listed below:

Miss Dorothy Wingert, class of 1928, Moran Night School, has been placed as stenographer and clerical assistant with the Manhattan Shirt Company, Hoffman street.

Miss Adeline Walker, who pursued the stenographic course, has made satisfactory connections with Attorney John T. Cahill, 280 Wall street. While pursuing her course at the Moran School, Miss Walker spent a part of each week at the Ulster County Savings Institution, where she had charge of the Schools Savings System, a co-operative arrangement between the schools and the banks of Kingston.

Miss Eleanor Campbell, a student of the combined course, is highly pleased with her position as bookkeeper, typist, and general office assistant with the Sheffield Farms Co., Inc., Hobart, N. Y.

Miss Helen Zadny, another efficient member of this year's class, has taken a position as stenographer and assistant bookkeeper with M. H. Herzog, 332 Wall street.

A responsible position in the accounting department of Rose & Gorman has been accepted by Miss Bertha Klein, experienced Moran graduate.

In response to a request from the Citizens Bank of Fleischmanns, Miss Ruth Pogue, a student of the secretarial department, was sent to fill a position as stenographic clerk during the summer months.

Miss Helen Nicholson, experienced Moran-trained accountant, has entered the employ of the Union Store, 250 Fair street, in the capacity of bookkeeper and typist.

Moran students have been supplying satisfactorily in temporary positions with the Roundout Savings Bank, the Aird-Lon Company, the W. E. Joyce Co., Inc., and elsewhere.

As in former years, the Moran Business School will continue in session all summer, the regular schedule of courses being maintained throughout July and August.

USES RADIO TO RESCUE OVER-THE-FENCE BALLS

Rochester, N. Y., July 20 (AP).—A Rochester lad has worked out a method of making his radio supply him with big league baseballs. He lives near Baseball Park, home field of the Red Wings of the International League.

On days when the team is playing at home he parks his bicycle in front of his home, leaves the front door open, tunes in on the local station broadcasting the game and then waits. He listens indifferently enough until he gets his "tip", as the voice of the announcer says.

"Charley Gelbert, Red Wing shortstop, is up. Gelbert swats a long one out into the garden. It's going over the fielder's head; it's over the fence at left field—it's a home run."

The boy springs into action, races from the house, vaults the porch railing and leaps into the saddle. Down the street he speeds to the point where he thinks the ball has cleared the fence. He usually finds it and then returns to the radio to wait another home run.

ARRANGEMENT HELPS TO KEEP FOOD FRESH.

When N. Y. City, June 19.—One of the secrets of keeping food fresh in summer is arranging it properly in the refrigerator, the New York state college of home economics tells homemakers. Particularly at this season of the year it pays to obtain fresh clean foods and to keep the kitchen pantry and refrigerator clean to receive them.

Keeping food cold is the only way to slow down the growth of bacteria without changing the composition of the food itself; and to keep it cool economically, the food must be put in its proper place in the refrigerator.

Foods which spoil easiest should be kept in the coldest part of the refrigerator, never in the ice chamber itself, but in the compartment just below it. This is the place for milk, soup stock, and butter. Such foods should be kept in covered vessels. Soup or gravy should be put into a sealed jar while hot and covered tightly. When the jar is cool, put it in the refrigerator and do not open it until the contents are to be used.

Put Cooked Foods Near Ice.

Because most cooked foods spoil easily, they should always be kept in a refrigerator and should be placed in the bottom section next to the milk and butter where the cold clean air which has just passed over the ice will reach them. Meats also belong on the bottom shelf. Fresh meat should always be removed from the paper wrapping and immediately put into the refrigerator.

Some foods, such as berries, keep better if left in an open container where the air can reach them. Others, like lettuce and celery, will stay crisp much longer if wrapped in a damp cloth or a piece of oiled paper. Fresh fruits and vegetables should go on the top shelf where the cold air reaches them just before returning to the ice chamber. This prevents their flavors from contaminating the milk and butter.

Taking Happiness

The worst phase of modern education, says a reader and philosopher in the American Magazine, is that it is based upon the assumption that taking is happiness.

Saloon Will Not Return to Canada

Toronto, July 20 (AP).—Charles McNeil, acting attorney general of Ontario, took issue yesterday with the assertion in a statement issued from headquarters of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at Chicago that the saloon is coming back in Canada in various forms and "all the old saloon evils" are reappearing.

"The party making the statement," he said, "must either have been misinformed or be deliberately misrepresenting the facts. The majority of Canadians are satisfied with the changes brought about in the liquor laws and the governments of the various provinces are exercising a real control of the liquor traffic."

"There is no intention either on the part of Canadians, or of any Canadian government, to have the saloon returned, and one may safely predict that the saloon and all its evils, as far as Canada is concerned, are relegated to the past."

"Under the Ontario liquor control act, all liquor is sold in government stores and there is no sale in clubs or restaurants. Public consumption of liquor is prohibited."

News From the World on Wheels

The campaign of The American Automobile Association for larger tires for automobiles has been given a decided boost forward by the latest reductions in automobile tire prices, according to Harris Brown of the Brown Tire Company. General tire dealers in this city and vicinity. Thousands of motorists will take off small inadequate tires this summer and replace them with larger proper sizes. They will be enabled to do this as a result of the savings made possible by the price cuts, according to Mr. Brown. Retail prices of tires dropped several days ago to the lowest figures in the history of the automobile.

A strictly stock Auburn Model 115 speedster in an endurance test sanctioned and supervised by the American Automobile Association is credited with breaking all time and distance records from 1 to 24 hours and 1 to 2,000 miles. In the 24 hour continuous test this Auburn stock car made over 2,033 miles in 24 hours, averaging 84.7354 m. p. h., and beating the former record by 9.112 miles per hour. The test was staged on the Atlantic City Speedway and A. A. A. officials were in charge. After such official tests the A. A. A. authorities go over the car in every detail and check to verify that it is absolutely the same as on any dealer's salesroom floor.

Miss R. C. Kelley and Mrs. Mary LaMoure in company with Mr. and Mrs. George Haynes of Binghamton went to visit friends in Lake Katara Sunday.

Mrs. Reginald Todd entertained the ladies of the M. E. Church Wednesday and arrangements were made for church fair to be held later.

County Superintendent George Shehane preached a very interesting sermon Sunday in the M. E. Church after which quarterly conference was held.

Supervisor H. E. Avery was called to Kingston early part of week to attend meeting of board of supervisors.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fairbairn went to Barberton, Ohio, Monday, where she will spend some time with her mother, who is ill.

Americanism: Yearning for a frock in a window, screaming because the clerk says the price is only $14.55.

Price isn't everything. Any woman had rather wear a $9.98-36 than a $2 costing $155.00.

"What has become of the hickory shirt and the man who once wore it?"

If all the angle worms were placed end to end, but that is impossible; who can tell a worm's end from its face?

Sometimes one cannot hear the whisperings of hope for the thunderings of despair.

Campaign years make some folks act funny.

Customer—"Ough! This towel is scalding hot."

Barber—"Sorry sir! I couldn't hold it any longer."

You should love your neighbor as yourself, but in Bible times there were no lawn mowers for neighbors to push at six a. m.

Beware of the man whose story sounds too good.

The happiness of anticipation is discounted about ninety-eight per cent by realization.

The kitchenware demonstrator wanted to call the next day.

"That's my busy day," said Mrs. Jordan. "I usually have so much to do that you would probably find me in a whirligig."

"Oh, that's all right, madam," the demonstrator replied. "I'm used to seeing housewives in their kitchen."

If Ten Commandments can't make men decent, 1,399,990 more can't do it.

Bachelor: "Sometimes I yearn for the peace and comfort of married life."

"Married Friend: 'I always do.'"

Most of us are so busy dodging brick-bats we couldn't see a bouquet if one should be thrown at us.

Most girls want to marry an economical man, but very few want to be engaged to one.

Grocer: Yes, lady, these eggs are fresh from the country.

Suspicious Customer: What country?

Some folks think a man sissy if he likes flowers.

Oliver: "You know, I believe there must be a woman in the moon as well as a man."

Oh: "How come?"

Oliver: "If not, how do you account for the sun?"

"Could you give a poor fellow a bite?" said the dust-stained tramp.

"I don't bite, myself," answered the lady of the house, "but I'll call the dog."

Anticipation.
Knee deep in June was Dora's dress. A warm July has made it shorter. In August it—but don't you guess. Because you really hadn't order.

Getting the other fellow's customers away from him is not nearly so important as keeping your own customers safe and satisfied.

Spasmodic advertising won't cure anemic business. It takes daily doses.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF NEW YORK
RENEW YOUR OIL INSURANCE TODAY

"Good morning, motor"
"Good morning, Boss. Say, would you mind speaking to the Madam? She was fooled yesterday by the one cent price lure of that pump across the street from Red's. You know she loves a bargain and never has understood that all gas isn't alike. Only last Monday, I was telling Red that his regular customers appreciated his honesty and would stick by him, and there I was across the street taking on a load of the poorest apology for gas that ever choked my cylinder heads. I felt like a dog and Red looked as if he'd lost his best friend. I know the Madam thinks a lot of me and if she realized how hobo gas and oil hurt me, she wouldn't any more buy them than she would give you bad eggs for breakfast. Put it up to her straight, Boss—and fix it up with Red. He's a good friend of ours."

LUBRICATION is only 2% of the cost of running your car. Changing the oil at regular intervals is the cheapest car insurance you can buy.

Have you driven 500 miles since your oil was changed? Are you planning summer tours?

Stop at a Socony station and renew your oil insurance today.

Oil is thinned after 500 miles, by gasoline that seeps down into the crankcase. It is black from dust and dirt. A fresh filling with Socony Motor Oil costs you only a few minutes in time, and very little in cash. Give your car this protection.

The Socony Laboratories work in close contact with the automobile manufacturers, and are constantly adapting Socony Motor Oil to meet the changes in engine construction. Thirteen tests insure the quality; fifty-four years of refining experience stand back of every gallon.

Why gears go wrong
Gears go wrong when the rear-end is neglected. Have the old lubricant flushed out twice a year. Refill with Socony Transmission Lubricant or Gear Oil. You'll get an appreciable increase in power; and the cost of this sensible trouble-insurance is very little.

TOURING THIS SUMMER? Let Socony Touring Service help you plan your trip and advise you of road conditions. The service is free. Just fill in the coupon and send it to Socony Touring Service, Room 58, 26 Broadway, New York City.

Kingston May Talk To Switzerland

The Alps and Rockies have been on speaker terms since Wednesday morning, July 18, when transatlantic telephone service was extended to include all of Switzerland, which nation will be connected via Paris to London and the transatlantic radio link by means of five miles of wire telephone circuit, newly established.

The rate for a call from any point in New York state to any point in Switzerland will be $12.50 for the first three minutes and $16.50 for each additional minute. The hours of service will include the period from 6:30 a. m. to 10 p. m., eastern daylight saving time, which corresponds to 11:30 a. m. to 3 a. m. in Switzerland.

Switzerland with a population of nearly four million people and a telephone development of 225,000 instruments is the ninth European nation to be connected by telephone with this side of the Atlantic.

American tourists are expected to enjoy particularly this latest extension, which includes many popular vacation resorts such as St. Moritz, Zermatt, Montreux, Luzern, Lucerne and Interlaken, as well as the Swiss Capital, Berne, Geneva headquarters for the League of Nations and prominent commercial centers such as Zurich.

NEW YORK STATE NOT FREE FROM SMALLPOX

Albany, N. Y., July 20 (P.)—While three neighboring states, Connecticut, New Hampshire and Vermont, were entirely free from smallpox last year, according to a report of the New York State Health Department, New York state had 363 cases, exclusive of New York City.

The number of cases compared with 284 in the previous year, and was considerably higher than the number in 1925, but lower than in 1924. Smallpox broke out in 34 communities during the year and was still being reported from 11 communities at the end of the year. Of those who contracted the disease, 237 had never been successfully vaccinated; 31 had been successfully vaccinated more than seven years previously and none had been successfully vaccinated within seven years.

For the fifth consecutive year the United States reported more cases of the disease than any other country except India. There were 38,438 cases reported, compared with 33,343 in 1926. England and Wales reported more cases, 14,767, than all the rest of Europe, and the Health Department makes the statement:

"So far as smallpox is concerned, about the only thing left for Anglo-Saxons to be proud of is that an English surgeon gave vaccination to the world."

City of Genoa

Genoa, one of the most magnificent cities in the world, as Venice may be one of the most beautiful, has suddenly been interesting the globe traveler. And there is no city in the world that has streets of palaces for proportion and perfection of form as perfect, nor a sea more supple blue. As I walked here the other day I thought of the many distinguished travelers who have stopped and remained here. Byron lived two years in the old Palazzo palace and worked on his cantos of "Don Juan." Leigh Hunt and Shelley coming down and spending a merry week-end. Dickens cast himself into "pink-jail," as he called his rose-tinted villa; Chaucer and Flaubert, Rembrandt and Van Dyck have been Genoa's guests, and the palaces still contain many a fine Van Dyck and Rembrandt. George Sand and Chopin were here, as well as a long list of Crusaders.—New York Times.

"Uncle Tom" Relics

England is claiming to have the only specimens of certain relics of Rev. Josiah Henson, the original Uncle Tom that inspired Harriet Beecher Stowe's story. Two are plaster busts of Henson, one being in Windsor castle and the other the property of A. Josland Lobb, whose father entertained Henson and introduced him to Queen Victoria. Another is an oil painting of Henson, also owned by Lobb.

Henson's story was almost identical with that of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" except that he escaped to Canada and spent his last years in Canada in peace and preaching. When nearly eighty he went to England to lecture and there met the senior Lobb, who was editor of the Christian Age.—Hartford Courant.

Church Services at Sea

On great ocean liners the passenger list almost invariably includes priests and clergymen, who volunteer to take charge of religious services. In the absence of a clergyman the shipmaster or his staff captain, assisted perhaps by the chief officer, conduct the service. The altars are often prepared with candles and banks of flowers. On one of the largest steamers in the transatlantic service there have been celebrated in the past five years 1,453 masses by 200 priests, while 2,856 communions have been received by passengers.

Democrats Seek Congress Control

The Senators Have Conferred With Gov. Smith Who Will Soon Learn of House Situation—Must Expect Republican Majority of 30 in Lower Body.

Albany, July 23 (A.P.).—In their efforts to put Governor Smith in the White House, the Democrats intend to overlook no opportunities to capture control of Congress.

The Democratic Presidential committee has already discussed the Senatorial phase of the question with two senators of his political party—Tydings of Maryland and James of Missouri—and before long, undoubtedly, he will be acquainted with the situation as it affects the House of Representatives.

Tydings, chairman, and Hawes, a member of the Democratic Senatorial campaign committee, gave Governor Smith first hand insight into their contemplated activities at a conference which terminated here yesterday. They proceeded to New York to confer with party leaders, determined to work in close cooperation with the Democratic national committee in an effort to overturn the slim Republican majority in the Senate.

Representative "Billy" Oldfield, of Arkansas, one of the war horses in Democratic ranks, is head of the party's Congressional campaign committee, whose chief worry is to bring about the election of Democrats to the House. He has been ill for several months and was unable to attend the Houston convention as a delegate at large from his home state, but he has sent word along to Governor Smith that he soon will be in business again.

Present Lineup of Congress
As they prepare to make their fight to wrest Congressional control from the Republicans, the Democrats are faced with the necessity of upsetting a majority of 30 in the House. The lineup in the Senate during the close of the last session was 47 Republicans, 46 Democrats, one Farmer-Labor and two vacancies.

In all, 35 Senatorial seats are at stake in the November elections. Of these the Democrats hold 20, the Republicans 14, and Farmer-Labor 1.

Among the Democratic seats involved in the coming election are those of Ashurst of Arizona; Bayard of Delaware; Bruce of Maryland; Copeland of New York; Dill of Washington; Edwards of New Jersey; Gerry of Rhode Island; Hendrick of Wyoming; King of Utah; Locher of Ohio; Nealey of West Virginia; Pittman of Nevada; Reed of Missouri; Walsh of Montana and Wheeler of Montana.

Week-End Outfits on Ensemble Plan

Costume, Frock to Shoes, Carries Combination Idea to New Heights.

Week-end visits out of town have become so definitely a part of modern life that special outfits are now designed for the purpose. Morning, too, has made "light" traveling essential, and left neither space nor sentiment for unnecessary frills and furbelows, so that modistes have had to solve many new problems for their clientele.

For the week-end, says a fashion writer in the New York Times, it is generally safe to select dress suitable for sports travel, or morning wear, and for afternoon and evening, formal or informal, as the case may be. Everything is arranged in ensemble, beginning with the suit in which one is to arrive. This may be a one-piece frock with a coat of the same material, or a three-piece, consisting of skirt and blouse, with a coat made to match the skirt, and to serve perhaps as a topcoat with other frocks.

Ensembles of this description are being designed for service on parties that are likely to include much out-of-doors activity. Some of these come in dressy styles and materials, for visits to a nearby fashionable resort or country house. The strictly tailored models this season are trim and exact, but yet youthful and feminine.

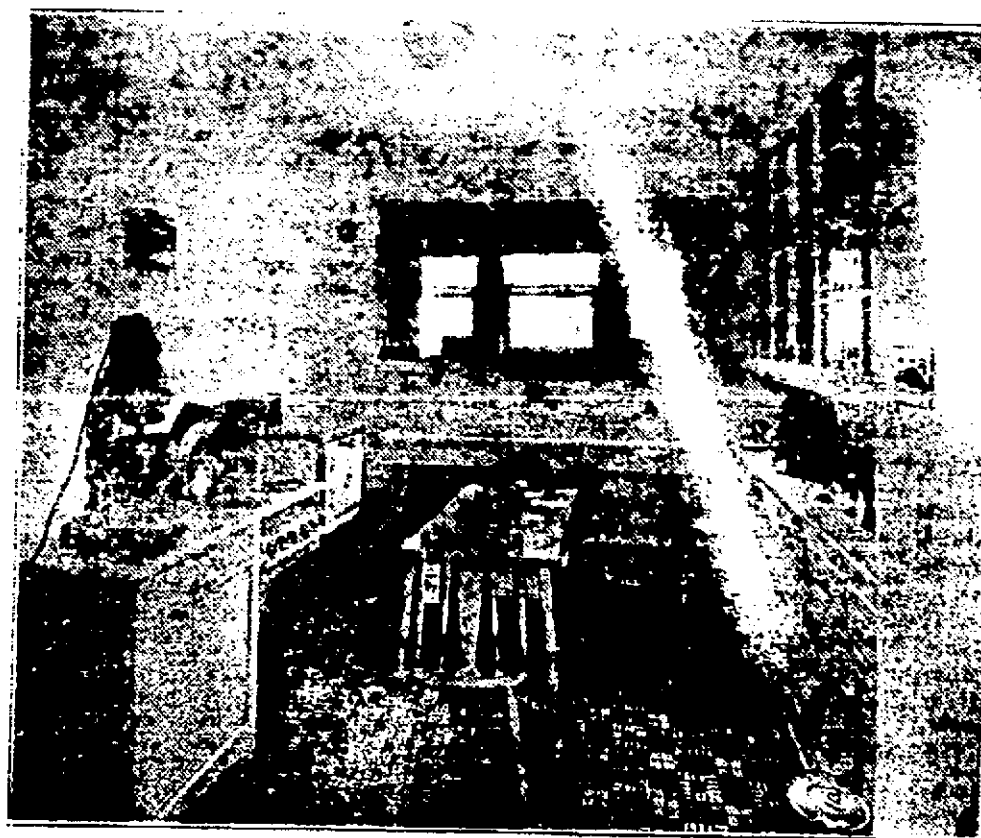

The sports ensemble, now more often called the morning suit, is presented in many different materials, though often in similar models. Crepe, taffeta, pussy willow, moire, satin, are all shown in much the same treatment. Suits of lightweight wool, too, are tremendously popular at the moment. Kashia, tweed, homespun and fancy weaves are used for the two-piece and three-piece suits, particularly for the ensemble in which a blouse of soft fabric is worn. This is usually made to match the coat lining, keeping harmony of color in the ensemble.

Preference for Woolens.
One of the surprises of the Paris summer collection of sports clothes, is the preference for woolens in mixtures, plain weaves and the various knotted fabrics. These include plain and fancy weaves, suede broadcloth and wool crepe and are made invariably in a softened variant of the tailored ensemble. Some charming models are shown in a one-piece frock model of wool made to give the effect of a separate overblouse and skirt, and designed to be worn with a fur scarf.

In a dress of this sort it is important that the color scheme be carried out in the hat, shoes, gloves, even, as far as possible, in the purse. An ensemble in beige kasha is made with the gown cut on simple diagonal lines, the plain skirt being made to dip slightly at one side. The short collarless jacket of the same goods is lined with brown crepe, which is used to pipe the edges of both the coat and bodice. The hat, shoes and purse that accompany this suit are all of brown suede in the same shade as that of the lining.

Combinations of different fabrics are used to add variety and interest to the sports ensembles, and the present manner of using plain with figured goods is sometimes most effective. In a conspicuously chic costume created by an American artist fine cashmeres in beige and brown are used to give the effect of stripes in the plaited skirt and overblouse. The short jacket of beige is lined with brown and has collar and cuffs of brown fur.

This is one of nonchalance models in which is seen the verge of suits either of brown alone or of brown in combination with beige, tan and the parchment shades. One smart suit model of this kind consists of a skirt of mixed or plain wool, and a jacket of velvet, which is now made in a sheer weave for summer that is warranted to be nonchalance. This is shown in plain textures and in ribbed surfaces to resemble the old-fashioned corduroy. A suit made of flat crepe with a velvet coat is even more decorative, and is shown in some charming color combinations. Scarlet, green and blue with white and with black and white are all fashionable, and yellow all in one white was introduced in the spring in lovely evening gowns and is being repeated in crepe sports frocks, which are shown also in ivory gray, pink and other shades that are just "off." These in ensembles of one color are particularly good in the more dressy sort of sports clothes. Several sports ensembles illustrate the possibilities of this idea. One consists of a frock of ivory moire with coat of kasha, another has a dress made of blue-white flat crepe and an unlined coat of moire in the same shade, and still another has taffeta and voile combined in a three-piece costume.

An ensemble that will delightfully meet the demand for correct dress on many daytime occasions is being made in the new prints on fabrics of different weaves. One of the conspicuous successes of the year in this idea is the repetition of dye and design on two materials which are combined in one ensemble. A charming model is made of washable taffeta in a lovely shade or in two shades is charming.

Yellow Worn at Races.
One of the prettiest sports ensembles seen this year was worn at one of the early races, a frock of yellow crepe with a plaited skirt and tailored overblouse, and a three-quarter-length coat of white kasha lined with crepe to match the frock. A hat of white suede felt banded with yellow grosgrain ribbon, white shoes and an envelope purse of white suede and yellow kid completed the costume.

White is very smart this summer, especially in the off-shades. Blue pattern of cherry blossoms printed on a background of pastel blue, of which the coat and skirt are made. The bodice, an exact replica in pattern and colors, is made of voile.

Another ensemble, in two shades of green with white and gray, is made of the same materials, and with it goes a large hat of sheer neapolitan, trimmed with gray velvet ribbon, and shoes and stockings and velvet purse of gray. In this type of dress one may wear the most vivid or the gentlest colors and appear as modish in one as in the other. Bright green, in the natural and the artificial tones, is exceedingly smart, and is shown in new suits of heavy crepe, jersey in fancy weaves and in plique and linen with hat, shoes, belt, bag and even umbrella to match.

For Various Occasions.
The sports ensemble in its variants answers for so many different occasions that two or more of these will meet the requirements for daytime affairs for which formerly one would have had several dresses, and responds to the popular demand for an all-day costume.

In distinctively afternoon dress the new printed materials are lovely. Crepe, pussy willow, voile and chiffon are being treated in the decorative modernistic manner, picturing landscapes and skylines or representing the signs of the zodiac or various geometric compositions.

Unless the sports ensemble with the long coat has its coat unlined and made of some such cool material as the natter blue pongee, which Philippe et Gaston employ in a certain fetching model, the coat is apt to find itself discarded in hot weather. Its lovely coloring alone, a light blue in this particular model, with a deep border of pale blue applied all about the coat under a narrow line of Chinese embroidery in white, should save this coat from such a fate, however. The natter blue skirt of the frock was flat plaited and the jumper was bordered deeply about the waist in white embroidery depicting a startled covey of Chinese birds.

No sports outfit would be considered complete this season without a separate, thin, tailored coat of a white basket weave or serge, made without a lining and trimmed in self bands or stitching. Pattern like a Norfolk gaiter on his coat of this type.

Court Sets Aside Slater Conviction

New York, July 20.—The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court today set aside the conviction of John Slater, a Kingston man, for the murder of a woman in the city of New York. Slater was found guilty of the crime in the lower court, but the Appellate Division, in a unanimous decision, held that the evidence was insufficient to sustain the conviction. Slater was released on his own recognizance and is expected to return to Kingston.

The crash occurred on a grassy field, and the airplane was completely destroyed.

The survivors are in good health and are being cared for by the Norwegian ship.

Desperado Kills Two Jail Keepers

New York, July 20.—A desperate attempt to escape from the Kingston Jail today resulted in the death of two jail keepers. The prisoner, a man known as "Big Boy," managed to break through the bars of his cell and escape. He then shot and killed two jail keepers who were trying to catch him. The prisoner is still at large and is being sought by the police.

Users were pounding on the bars of their cells and yelling and for some time all was confusion. Finally the fourth tier prisoners were herded back into their places and the other prisoners quieted down. District Attorney John E. McGowan took charge of the investigation in an attempt to learn where McCabe secured his pistols. Veterans' Picnic Sunday. The Joyce-Kellogg Post, No. 1,386, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold a big picnic at Maple Hill on the Rosendale road on Sunday afternoon and evening. A. F. Dewey's Fun Makers will present several acts of vaudeville, free, tonight on Harborview avenue, near Meadow street, where tents and a stage have been erected. The shows are produced throughout the country to advertise Dewey's Medicine. Although Mr. Dewey is a Kingston resident, tonight will be the first he ever presented his show to an audience here. The offerings, several vaudeville acts by experienced troupe, are said to be of a high class and contain plenty of comedy. They are of the old minstrel type. It is expected that the Kingston man's friends will be at the show tonight, which will start at 8 o'clock. The present site of the stage will likely be occupied for two weeks, after which the show will move to another. The program changes each night.

256,000 People Join In Schubert Festival

In the largest wooden structure in the world, shown above in final stages of construction, choral societies from all over the world are celebrating during July the centenary of the death of Franz Schubert (left), immortal musician. The choral festival has attracted 250,000 visitors, only 70,000 of whom may be accommodated in the hall at once. At the right is Schubert's grave in Vienna.

Vienna, July 29 (AP).—In honor of Franz Schubert, the centenary of whose death is being celebrated this year, 150,000 members of choral societies from all over the world are raising their voices today in song.

They are participants in the tenth German choral festival here. During four days, beginning July 19, the music of "the greatest song-writer of all time" will be sung by highly trained choirs representing every country in the world. The American delegation numbers 2,000.

So universal is the interest in Vienna's commemoration of her illustrious son that the concert hall in the Prater, which accommodates 70,000 persons and is said to be the largest wooden structure ever built, is incapable of housing all the singers and visitors attending the festival. For this reason a complete shift of audience and performers is made several times a day, concerts continuing all day long.

The vast multitude, no fewer than 250,000 persons, now gathered in Vienna to attend the celebrations, has taxed the city's transportation, hotel and restaurant capacity to its utmost. Citizens have volunteered to house 50,000 of the visitors, and several hundred temporary restaurants have been provided to feed them. The German and Polish governments have placed hundreds of locomotives and passenger coaches at the disposal of Austria, and 60,000 beds have been lent by Poland.

The success of the Schubert centenary is in marked contrast to that accorded the composer himself during his brief life of 31 years. Born in Vienna in 1797, he died in poverty with only a few friends to care for his remains, which remained unrecognized by the world. He left at his death a heritage of two immortal songs, a group of brilliant masses, concertos, symphonies and other instrumental pieces; a lock of faded hair and a pair of old spectacles.

The latter are preserved in an exhibition opened here in May by officials of the Austrian government. In the six rooms of the Schubert Museum are displayed landmarks of the whole pathetic history of the master's life.

ANNUAL MEETING OF LEGION POST TONIGHT. The annual meeting of Kingston Post of the American Legion will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the American Legion Memorial Building. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected and delegates to the county convention will be selected.

A committee which has in charge the transporting of Legionnaires to Schenectady on September 1, to participate in the state convention, will be served at the meeting. All members of the Post are urged to be present.

Broke Rib in Bath Tub. Stephen D. Hiltibrand is confined to his home at 257 Albany avenue by reason of a broken rib caused by a fall against the edge of a bath tub in which he slipped while taking a bath a few days ago.

High School Office to Open. The principal's office at the Kingston High School will be open on Thursday, July 26, from 2 p. m. on so that all who have matters to take up with that official may do so. Those who are arranging to attend colleges may see about their records Thursday.

Goals With Saugerties Bank. William F. Keenan, village treasurer of Saugerties, who recently severed connection with the Saugerties Manufacturing Company, is now employed by the Saugerties Bank, where he started his duties Thursday morning.

Kingston Boy on Barge Canal Trip

James Rodden, a pupil of No. 2 Public School, who learned much about the Barge Canal from his geography, was given the chance this week to sail over the man-made waterway by Captain Bill O'Neil and Jack Jones, two well known boaters, who left the H. Leatham at 10 o'clock with the newly built barge boat, M. H. Joyce, for a trip to Buffalo.

Young Rodden, who resides near the waterfront, at the corner of Abel and Havens streets, had for a long time watched the construction of many boats by the H. Leatham Co., which now sail on the great canal across the state. His longing to see the waterway and make the trip over one of the boats was made more acute by stories he heard from old captains with whom he talked while their boats were being repaired at the boatyard. Then, too, he has two brothers, captains of tugs on the canal, with whom he would like to sail, so Skippers Joyce and O'Neil decided to take Jimmy on the journey he longed to make.

His host of friends stood on the dock near the boat yard to bid him good voyage as he sailed out of the slip on the M. H. Joyce, which will run the Jack Joyce fleet for a month's sail over the waterway's for the west. They wished the future captain, as they are confident James will be, and a good one, too, a fine time on his journey. His smile of happiness at the thought of making the trip assured his friends that it would be one well enjoyed.

The boy will likely leave the Joyce fleet when he meets his brothers Marshall and "Buck" with their tugs. The trip will undoubtedly last until Jim is ready to return to school, where he will be able to give his classmates at No. 2 some first-hand information concerning the geography of upper New York state.
